

Lace and Pretty Flowers (Willie P. Bennett)

If you've got lace and pretty flowers
Give your baby, get her under your powers
If you got silks and sweet perfume
You know she might come, she might come up to your room

But if you got soul
You know she's going to bowl you over
And when my baby rolls me over
I feel like I want to fly
I feel like I want to fly

If you got satins and lots of money
Diamond rings and such things to trap your honey
You got big black cars. You want to let her ride.
You give it all to her, she might come over to your side

But if you got love and a deep devotion
It gets just as deep as the ocean
With just you two inside
Just you two inside

If you got a house. A mansion in the country
You give it all to her. She could still be empty
You could be the richest man in the world
But there's nothing I know of That'll buy you the heart of a girl

But if you got love and a deep devotion
It gets just as deep as the ocean
With just you two inside
Just you two inside
